Winner—Ch. c, by Ingoldsby—Duchess Caroline.
Went to post at 2:00. At post 12 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Inventor, always close up, finished resolutely and was going gradually away at the end. Duke of Connaught ran a good race, but faltered in the closing strides. Inspector Shea came fast in the last eighth and altogether ran a good race. Mythrox showed much speed for five furlongs.
Scratched—28224 Emmet Orr, 115; 28605 Smith's Reel, 103.
Overweights—Inspector Shea, 34 pounds; St. Sever, 2.
Inventor, show, 2 to 5. Duke of Connaught, show, 4 to 5. Inspector Shea, show, 2 to 1.

28624 SECOND RACE—1 1-8 Mile. Purse $500; $75 to second; $25 to third. 3-year-olds and upward. Allowances.

Winner—Ch. g, by Hanover—Gypsy.
Went to post at 2:35. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Flying Torpedo ran a cracking good race, leading from start to finish. He was much the best at the weights. Renede's race was a surprise and was undoubtedly the best effort of his life. She ran fast and finished stoutly. Rolling Boer came with a rush at the end but too late to be of any avail. He ran below the mark. Orontas could never set up and his race was not to his true form. He was well spent in the last sixteenth. Brutal fell away beaten in the last quarter.
Overweights—Rolling Boer, 2 pounds; Brutal, 4.
Flying Torpedo, show, 3 to 5. Renede, show, 9 to 5. Rolling Boer, show, out. Orontas, show, 9 to 20.

28625 THIRD RACE—3-4 Mile. Purse $500; $75 to second; $25 to third. All Ages. Handicap.

Winner—Ch. g, by The Hero—Little Grove Queen.
Went to post at 3:00. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Money Muss, as usual simply spreadeagled his field and ran a high-class race. W. J. Deboe finished with a rush, but it was too late to be of any avail. Gonfalon made up ground in the last quarter and finished fast. J. V. Kirby ran a fair race. Master Mariner ran below the mark and was always outrun. Georgie showed a little early speed.
Scratched—28422 Vulcan, 106.
Money Muss, show, 2 to 5. W. J. Deboe, show, 6 to 5. Gonfalon, show, evens.

28626 FOURTH RACE—5 1-2 Furlongs. 2-year-olds. Selling. The Proviso Stakes. $1,500 added. $300 to second; $150 to third. Value to winner, $2,190.

*Apprentice allowance. Time, 24, 23, 47, 1:00, 1:06.
Winner—Ch. g, by De Beauvoir—Lady Hope.
Went to post at 3:30. Off at the first break. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Landseer finished fast and strongly and was the best at the end. Lucien Appleby got off flying and showed a high flight of speed, but was tiring fast at the end. Harry New was right there up to the last eighth, but failed when the pinch came. He lost some ground by swinging wide at the head of the stretch. Legal Maxim showed well for a half mile. Sol Lichtenstein ran a good race for a little over four furlongs, but gradually fell away beaten when coming down the stretch.
Overweights—Jane Oaker, 2 pounds.
No show betting on first three.

28627 FIFTH RACE—1 Mile. Purse $400; $75 to second; $25 to third. 3-year-olds and upward. Allowances.

Winner—B. c, by Bersan—Katherine Bassett.
Time, 24, 49, 1:14, 1:40.

Went to post at 4:00. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Henry Burt went into the lead soon after the first quarter had been reached and was never headed thereafter, finishing with plenty to spare. Goal Runner ran well, but was well spent in the last sixteenth and had to be driven out to the last ounce to stall off Valdez's rush at the end. Valdez awoke with a start and showed in great contrast to his last performance. He finished fast and would have been second in a stride or two. Jiminez showed improvement over his last two races. He should be a hard horse to beat at his next asking. Both Denman Thompson and Hi Nocker faltered when the rub came.
Overweights—Goal Runner, 2 pounds; Valdez, 2; Denman Thompson, 3.
Henry Burt, show, 3 to 1. Goal Runner, show, 3 to 5. Valdez, show, 6 to 5. Jiminez, show, 3 to 10. Denman Thompson, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—Ch. g, by Hermencia—Grecia.
Went to post at 4:25. Off at the first break. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Hermencia finished fast when called upon in the last eighth, winning much as his rider pleased. El Ghor came with a rush in the last eighth, but too late to be of any avail. Alee was speedy for seven furlongs and then tired. John McGurk ran a good race and would have been third in another stride. Pay the Fiddler had enough when a furlong out. He runs best in the mud.
Scratched—28023 W. S. Gates, 110.
Corrected weights—Vonzollern, 105.
Overweights—Vonzollern, 4 pounds; John McGurk, 3.
Hermencia, show, 2 to 5. El Ghor, show, 3 to 2. Alee, show, 1 to 5.

Winner—B. g, by Newcastle—Willow.
Went to post at 4:50. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Crosby, always well up, finished strongly in the last eighth, but had to be driven out hard to stall off Frank M.'s bid at the end. The latter came with a rush at the finish after making up ground in the last half. Miss Dooley was staggering at the end. Greetings showed quite a turn of speed for seven furlongs, but was fading away fast at the end. Scarlet Lily ran as if short. The race should do her good. Woodstick was right there for six furlongs.
Scratched—28201 Zacatoso, 109; 28268 Isabay, 107.
Overweights—Formero, 2 pounds; Scarlet Lily, 1.
Crosby, show, 8 to 5. Frank M., show, 3 to 1. Miss Dooley, show, 3 to 2. Kunja, show, 7 to 10.

Winner—Ch. c, by Eureka—Addie Mc.
Went to post at 2:15. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. McAddie displayed brilliant speed throughout and outclassed his field. Belle of Lexington in light, ran a good race and hung on well at the end. Smoke finished strongly and sprinting is her game. Isia ran in vastly improved form for O'Connor. Rappenecker, shut off at the half, finished well. Tower of Candles and Bastile both broke so slowly as to have been practically left at the post. Stuart quit almost to a walk in the last quarter.
Scratched—28576 Chucatanunda, 126; (28474) Unmasked, 124; 28474 Musette, 110; (28314) Corvera, 109; 28593 Par Excellence, 93; 28515 Himself, 87.

LANDSEER'S PROVISIO STAKES.

Despite the cool weather that caused lovers of racing to resort to their winter wrappings there was a big crowd on hand at Harlem yesterday, those that braved the inclement conditions being amply repaid for their visit. The card was one of the best that has been presented in weeks and was productive of excellent sport.

The feature event of the day was the Proviso Stakes, a dash of five and one-half furlongs for two-year-olds with $1,500 added. Harry New was the medium of a heavy plunge and was made a decided favorite, being held at 7 to 5 in the betting but the best he could do was to run a very poor third. The winner proved to be Louis Ezell's good gelding Landseer which beat Lucien Appleby on the post by a nose after a merry tilt in the last eighth. Lucien Appleby got off with a flying start and held a fair advantage up to a sixteenth out where Landseer moved up fast and joined him, the two fighting it out to the wire. Lucien Appleby tired perceptibly in the closing strides. Harry New finished third seven lengths away. Sol Lichtenstein showed speed but could not carry it far.

Money Mues proved conclusively that he was not presented with his last victory at the start by beating a good field of sprinters in the third race like breaking sticks. He led from start to finish, holding his field safely at all times. In the last sixteenth W. J. Deboe came with a great rush, but it was too late, as Money Mues beat him handily by a neck. The former beat Gonfalon three lengths for second place. Master Mariner put up an indifferent race and was never a contender. J. V. Kirby showed well, considering that he was conceding a lot of weight to many horses in the race.

Flying Torpedo was in great fettle, taking the second race, a dash of one and an eighth miles, in handy fashion. He led from start to finish, winning by a length from Reseda, which beat Rolling Boer a head for second place. Reseda ran probably the best race of her career. Orontas put up an indifferent performance. Rolling Boer was well spent at the finish and clearly showed he does not like a route at high pressure.

The day's opener went to Inventor, heavily backed by the horsemen. He came with a well-timed rush at the end and won quite easily by a length from Duke of Connaught, which finished a half before Inspector Shea for second place. The last-named finished stoutly and bears watching from now on. Mythrox showed speed for five furlongs, but died away when the stretch drive came.

Henry Burt, a rank outsider in the betting, took the fifth race, a dash of a mile, by two lengths from Goal Runner with plenty to spare. He went easily into the lead after the first quarter had been run and was never headed thereafter. Goal Runner put up a poor race and is probably not enamored of anything over seven furlongs. Valdez ran a surprisingly good race and would have beaten out Goal Runner for second place in a stride or two. Jiminez showed plainly that he was short. He finished fairly fast and the race should do him good.

After Alce had run himself into weariness in the sixth race, after showing great speed for seven furlongs, Hermencia passed him easily and won much as his rider pleased by a length from El Ghor, which beat Alce four for second place. El Ghor came with a rush at the end, but had no chance to beat the winner.

Crosby proved to be the best of a bad field in the last race, winning in a drive by a neck from Frank M., which beat Miss Dooley four for second place.

Jockey Birkenruth was fined $50 for cutting across the field with Landseer in the fourth race.
Dominick was fined $25 by Starter Dwyer for trying to beat the barrier with Money Mues in the third race.

WORTH'S PROGRAM BOOK.

The program book for the Worth Jockey Club's first nine days' racing has been issued and shows an intention on the part of the club to give high-class racing and to bring the better class of horses together. Races over a distance of ground are features of the book, while an endeavor has been made to bring the best of the two-year-olds together at distances ranging from five furlongs to one mile.

The Worth October Handicap, $1,000 added, one mile, will be the chief offering of the opening day, October 10. Three other races of $500 each are offered and two of $400 each, comprising the first day's racing. Over $26,000 will be distributed during the first nine days. On Saturday the Illinois Handicap, $1,000 added, one mile and an eighth, will bring together the good class of handicap horses now racing here. Purse and handicaps of $400, $500, $600, $700 and $800 are numerous through the book up to Saturday, October 19, when the Blue Island Handicap, $1,000 added, one mile and a quarter, is featured, with a $700 purse for good two-year-olds at a distance of one mile. A $500 mile and a half race will also add to the attractiveness of the card for the day. The program has pleased horsemen and they are now beginning to move over to the Worth track.

Secretary Biller said yesterday: "There will be great racing at Worth, and it will be a fitting close to the greatest racing season the State of Illinois ever saw. I have had assurances from horsemen that they will race their best horses at Worth, many of which have been resting up for some time, and with good weather Worth will give fifteen days of high class racing."

President John Powers, Treasurer, W. J. O'Brien, Manager, J. E. Wagner, Presiding Judge, M. N. Macfarlan and Secretary Biller spent Wednesday at the Worth track and all expressed satisfaction with the appearance and condition of the track and its surroundings.

CROSBY

As uncovered special, backed off the boards. Some of my clients win from $200 to $700 Mr. Brown win $1,200, betting all his winnings from Landseer and Hermencia. Mr Raffling had bet all the money he had on the other horse when Ed saw him. Being an old customer Ed declared him in with a $25 bet of mine, which I stood with pleasure. Not a dollar bet until stable money was on and odds wired to pool rooms, and not a single customer overlooked. When I used Amote we got 50 to 1 and the stable less than half.

Today Another One.

Time, 24¹/₂, 49¹/₂, 1:15¹/₂, 1:42¹/₂, 1:43¹/₂.

Winner—B. h. by Knight of Ellerslie—Dearest.
Went to post at 3:45. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Knight of the Garter was bumped on the first turn but recovered and picked up his field in the next half and came away strongly in the stretch. Astor was lucky throughout and ran a game race. Alsike, favored by the cuppy going, closed a big gap from a bad break and is improving steadily. Fatalist also made up a lot of ground. Satire had no chance with the ride and can do better. Alard Scheck showed speed for six furlongs but tired unaccountably in the stretch and is palpably out of form.

Scratched—28615 Barbetto, 93.
Overweights—Little Daisy, 5 pounds; Pincher, 1.

Winner—B. f. by Sir Dixon—Cherry Blossom.
Went to post at 3:10. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Feme Sole after a sharp drive caught and passed The Pride of Surrey in the stretch and appeared like winning easily but only just lasted long enough to get the verdict from the grand looking Bessie McCarthy. The latter, after being outrun by many lengths in the first half, closed up like a whirlwind at the end and is evidently a superior class filly over a distance of ground. The Pride of Surrey ran well to the stretch. Oclawaha and Francois were outclassed.

Scratched—28593 Flora Pomona, 112; 28230 Barouche, 99; 28403 Fonsoluna, 96.
Overweights—Feme Sole, 5 pounds.
No show betting on first three.

Winner—B. c. by Autocrat—Silverlight.
Went to post at 3:25. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Autolight, pinched and pulled up at the start, gradually made up the ten lengths lost and caught the leaders on the stretch turn, after which his victory appeared certain. O'Connor riding supremely a confident appearing race on him in the last quarter. He is a marvelously improved colt and was much the best today at the weights. He, however, was vastly benefited by the others racing the first half tremendously fast. The Regent was the first to crack and Blues soon after followed suit, and Dublin, passing them in the stretch, was himself easily disposed of by the winner, but ran in much improved form. Blues was undoubtedly short and will probably reverse this running when he meets Dublin again. The Regent is a 20 per cent. better horse under light weight.

Scratched—28614 Paul Clifford, 108; 28631 Alard Scheck, 102.
Overweights—Autolight, 3 pounds.
Autolight, show, out. Dublin, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. f. by Kantaka—Lady Pepper.
Went to post at 4:05. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Par Excellence, cleverly handled, waited on Lady Holyrood to the stretch, where she came away with ease. The latter outran the others decisively for five furlongs, but failed to last the distance out. Lady Godiva, poorly handled, finished very strongly under a vigorous ride. Grail performed poorly when expected to make her bid in the stretch. She failed utterly. Carroll D. is worth remembering on a heavy track.

Scratched—28522 Chilton, 117; 28523 Caughnawaga, 113; Luck and Charity, 112; 28593 Flora Pomona, 100.

Winner—B. c. by Pactolus—White Label.
Went to post at 4:35. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Arak showed the most speed and being fresh and good and the track to his liking he ran kindly. Collegian received a lukewarm ride and was probably the best horse. He finished strongly. Anna Darling was favored by the cuppy going and is in extra good form for her. She made up a lot of ground and finished well. Irene Lindsey is a pronounced quitter.

Winner—Br. g. by Pirate of Penzance—Virgie Wright.
Went to post at 2:02. At post 13 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Marcy was away in his stride, was well placed and came on fast when called on. Bean began slowly and was weakly handled, but finished strongly and might have won with a strong ride. Tea Gown also began slowly, but finished very stoutly under the whip. Deloraine ran her race. Belle of Elgin was out off at the stretch turn when she seemed like a sharp contender. Diaz, off badly, never had a chance to use his speed to advantage.

Scratched—28602 The Caxton, 104.

Time, 12¹/₂, 28¹/₂, 49, 1:02, 1:09.
Winner—B. c. by Strathmore—Ilma B.
Went to post at 3:14. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Survive ran a good race and was best ridden. With a good ride all the way Mona B. might have won. She was off badly and was messed all the way. Ben Frost ran a good race. Judge Pettus, interfered with at the start, never had a chance to use his speed. Ciales showed a fine burst of speed for three eighths but the weight stopped her. Spinel showed none of his usual speed at any part of it and ran a dull race. Dugan took him up at the start and held him back for the first three eighths. He likes to run in front best. The Golden Prince likes two miles better than five and a half furlongs.

Survive, show, 1 to 2. Mona B., show, 4 to 1. Ben Frost, show, 7 to 5. Judge Pettus, show, 3 to 5. Dandy Jim, show, 7 to 10.

28639 FOURTH RACE—1 Mile and 70 Yards. Purse $400. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling.
